

Equal Opportunities Policy For: June Rendell Academy Of Dance

June Rendell Academy of Dance recognise that everyone has a contribution to make to our society and a right to equal opportunity. No job applicant or employee, member, volunteer or organisation/individual to which we provide services will be discriminated against by us on the grounds of:

- Gender.
- Race: (including ethnic origin, colour, nationality and national origin).
- Disability.
- Sexual orientation.
- Religion or beliefs.
- Age.

We aim to promote equal opportunities, eliminate discrimination and eliminate harassment through the following:

- Opposing all forms of unlawful and unfair discrimination.
- All employees (whether part-time, full-time or temporary), volunteers, contractors, and beneficiaries will be treated fairly and with respect.
- Classes will be open to all.
- All vacancies will be advertised internally and externally simultaneously and will include a statement on equal opportunities.
- Selection for employment/volunteering, promotion, training or any other benefit will be on the basis of aptitude and ability. All selection/rejection decisions will be recorded.
- All employees/volunteers/contractors will be helped and encouraged to develop their full potential and the talents and resources of individuals will be fully utilised to maximise the efficiency of the organisation.
- All employees/volunteers/contractors have a legal and moral obligation not to discriminate and to report incidents of discrimination against any individual or group of individuals to Miss S Bosworth.

Our commitment:

- To create an environment in which individual differences and to contributions of all our staff, volunteers, contractors and beneficiaries are recognised and valued.
- Every employee, volunteer, contractor and beneficiary is entitled to be part of an environment that promotes dignity and respect to all. No form of intimidation, bullying or harassment will be tolerated.
- Training, development and progression opportunities are available to all staff/volunteers/contractors.
- Equality is good management practice and makes sound sense.
- Breaches of our equality policy will be regarded as misconduct and could lead to disciplinary proceedings or membership disqualification.
- The policy will be monitored and reviewed annually.

The successful implementation of this policy depends on the awareness and commitment of all staff/volunteers/contractors.

Hence, all new staff/volunteers/contractors will be made aware of its existence and on joining the organisation, and reminded they must conform to it on a regular basis.
