If dancers wish to represent JRADA at this event they:

- ✓ Must be available all day on Sunday 20th February and be able to attend the pre-competition local workshops/dress rehearsals during our half-term 15th - 17th February (dates/times TBC). There will be a small fee for rehearsals.
- ✓ Can only perform one set routine (either 1 or 2) not both.
- ✓ Should choreograph their dance themselves if competing in the improvisation section. However, at half term teachers will work on these dances.
- ✓ Will need a contemporary style costume (we may have costumes you can borrow). No stoned/sequined costumes or ballet tights (either bare legs or footless tan tights). For footwear, bare feet or foot undies are preferred.

Please tick below which sections the dancer above would like to compete in.

Contemporary Set Routine 1 (Time After Time)	<input type="checkbox"/>
Contemporary Set Routine 2 (Lost)	<input type="checkbox"/>
Improvisation (DJ's Choice)	<input type="checkbox"/>

- There will be no commercial set routines at this competition as it is contemporary dance only.
- Entry/ticket fee is £16.00. It is not essential that parents attend the competition but if they wish to they will need to pre-order a ticket (which is also £16.00). Momentum is limiting it to 1 ticket per family.

This form must be returned and competition fees should be paid by Sunday 23rd January 2022. Payment Reference MOMENTUM to:
